LA GUARDIA BEATS BENNETT 1,688 TO HEAD ALDERMEN

Organizations Generally Win in Light Vote Cast at Primaries.

Complete figures in the primaries of yesterday showed that while the organizations generally won, astounding inroads were made into the machine ranks by insurgents in both the Democratic and Republican parties.

On the whole, the vote was the smallest on any primary day since the Direct Primary Law went into effect. The lack of interest was shown in the fact that not a man appeared at Tammany Hall, which was dark all evening, and John H. McCooey did not show up at the Kings County Democratic headquarters in Brooklyn.

A significant victory was that of Representative Reuben L. Haskell, running on an anti-prohibition platform for one of the two Republican nominations to the County Court in Kings. He won almost by two to one over Frederick L. Martyn, the third candidate. Haskell went into the primary after the organization had turned him down because of his "wet" record in Congress.

William M. Bennett, running as an insurgent for the Republican nomination for President of the Board of Aldermen against Congressman F. H. La Guardia, who had a war record and the backing of the organization, was defeated by 1,688 votes. The complete figures in the five boroughs were: La Guardia, 28,774; Bennett, 26,584.

Bennett carried three of the five boroughs. In Brooklyn he had a majority of 3,441; in Queens, 1,540, and in Richmond, 152. La Guardia carried Manhattan by 6,412, the vote being 11,876 for La Guardia and 5,464 for Bennett; and the Bronx by 409, the vote being 1,944 for La Guardia and 1,534 for Bennett.

Bennett in 1917 ran against Mayor

Mitchell for the Republican nomination for Mayor, and was apparently beaten in the primaries by 1,000, but after a recount he got the nomination by 811 votes.

In Kings too the Democratic organization, the leader of which, John H. McCooey, had made light of the insurgent fight led by James E. Finegan, had its hands full putting through its slate. Kuhn apparently won the Supreme Court nomination over Dowling, his insurance opponent, by 2,216 votes, the total vote so far compiled being Dowling, 34,485; Kuhn, 36,149.

As far as the Municipal Court places, the Assembly and Aldermanic nominations and the other minor contests, the organization men won in practically every instance.

In the 9th Manhattan District Alderman Thomas P. Williams claimed he had defeated the old leader, Ross Williams (no relation) for the Tammany leadership by 254 to 214, and that Patrick H. Costello, his Assembly candidate, had won by 1,559 votes to 911 for Assemblyman P. H. Walter, while John W. Moran, his Aldermanic candidate, had defeated Thomas Reilly by 1,485 to 914.

In the 21st Aldermanic District, in Manhattan, however, Charles J. McGillick beat James F. McNulty, the present Alderman. The unofficial figures gave McNulty 344 votes and McGillick 1,032.

When the result of the contest became known, Mr. Bennett said: "I predicted that I would carry Kings, Queens and Richmond and break even in the Bronx. The blight of Sam Koenig still seems to remain on Manhattan."

VOTE FOR PRESIDENT OF BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

The complete vote in the Republican contest for the nomination for President of the Board of Aldermen was as follows:

La Guardia's majority, 1,098.
